

How to become a

Volunteer

Thank you for deciding to contribute!

We are grateful that you would like to volunteer with our school. People like you:

- Strengthen our school community
- Connect our school to the greater community
- Make a difference in the lives of learners
- Find volunteering to be personally rewarding!

How to get started

Step 1: Visit our school office to get the documents you need to complete, including a criminal record check.

Step 2: When your documentation is complete, return it by mail or in-person to either the school office or Board office.

Step 3: Talk to your school principal about how your talents and experience might best contribute to our school.
